

Bob Lilly Associate Partner

With over 26 years of risk management and business consulting experience, Bob Lilly is a sought-after professional speaker, seminar leader, and corporate trainer.

Through his work with government agencies, educational facilities, large and small corporations, Bob is able to use his expertise to reduce risk of operations, increase profits, and increase employee retention for his clients. Bob provides current information on the latest trends and programs happening in insurance and risk management. His fresh and actionable ideas, mixed with his entertaining style make Bob an engaging instructor.

Bob is an expert in emergency preparedness, crisis management, cyber risk management, human resource procedures, and disaster recovery.

Some of his clients include: Lewis and Clark College, Gresham-Barlow School District, America Association of Architects-Oregon, Myhre Group Architects, Society of Design Administrators, National Association of Fire Equipment Distributors, Public School Business Managers, and Public Risk Managers Associations, Gas & Welding Distributors, and the National Fire Suppression Dealers Association.

Suggested Topics

Crisis Management

Insider tips for handling catastrophes and how to set up a crisis plan.

Insurance IOI

Everything you need to know about Insurance. Learn what kind of insurance you need to tips on how to select an insurance agent.

Cyber Risk

The latest trends on how to protect you and your customers from hackers and viruses, as well as what insurance is available.

Disaster Recovery

How to prepare for a big loss and what to do after it happens.

Risk Management Hot Topics

What safety and risk issues businesses are concerned about and how to deal with them.

Safety Committees

Tips on how to easily design and implement safety programs in your company.

Insurance Market Update

Current trends in pricing and coverage, as well as who the hot markets are and how to access them.

Six Proven Ways to Reduce Your Premiums

Everyone wants ot reduce cost, Bob show you how to with out sacrificing coverage.

Top Trends in Insurance and Risk Management

Just what are the best practices in today risk management world? What are the fortune five hundred companies doing and how can you get in on the benefits.

